A STATICAL RESEARCH METHODOLOGY IN BIOEQUIVALENCE

Date: 13 October 2022

Venue: SBSPM's B. Pharmacy College, Ambajogai.

Resource Persons: Mr. Shaikh Aatif (Asst. Manager Clinical Research dept. Cipla Ltd Mumbai)

Co-ordinator: Mr. Mamoon A. Qureshi

Program Outcome: The students understand the significance of Bioavailability. Drugs having a low therapeutic index and a narrow margin of safety. Also understand the Drugs whose peak levels are required for the effect and drugs that are absorbed by active transport. Students also get ideas about Drugs which are disintegrated in the alimentary canal and liver, or those which undergo first-pass metabolism. Students understand the Formulations that give sustained release of drugs; any new formulation has to be tested for its bioavailability profile and Drugs with steep dose-response relationship i.e. Drugs obeying zero order kinetics / mixed order elimination kinetics.

Description: The Speaker of the webinar was Mr. Shaikh Aatif (Asst. Manager Clinical Research dept. Cipla Ltd Mumbai). The basic overview and introduction of the speaker were given by Mr. Mamoon A. Qureshi (Asst. Prof) SBSPM's B. Pharmacy College, Ambajogai.

He explained in detail the significance of Bioavailability Drugs having a low therapeutic index, e.g. cardiac glycosides like quinidine, phenytoin, etc, Narrow margin of safety (e.g. antiarrhythmics, antidiabetics, adrenal steroids, theophylline), Drugs whose peak levels are required for the effect e.g. phenytoin, phenobarbitone, primidone, sodium valporate, anti-hypertensives, antidiabetics and antibiotics, Drugs that are absorbed by active transport, e.g. amino acid analogs, Purine analogs, etc. Drugs that are disintegrated in the alimentary canal and liver, e.g. chlorpromazine, etc., or those that undergo first-pass metabolism. Formulations that give sustained release of the drug. Any new formulation has to be tested for its bioavailability profile. Drugs with steep dose-response relationship i.e. drugs obeying zero order kinetics / mixed order elimination kinetics (e.g. warfarin, phenytoin, digoxin, aspirin at high doses, phenylbutazone), Bioequivalencetrial and the role of Bioequivalencetrial in pharmacy and society in the above-mentioned webinar in this session all staff members and students of B.Pharm and M.Pharm were present. In this webinar, 69 participants participated.

Finally, the vote of thanks was given by Ms. Sonali G. Taple on behalf of SBSPM's B. Pharmacy College Ambajogai. Then online feedbacks were collected from participants and finally declared that the webinar was over.
